

Building Awareness Champion

Celebrate International Internal Audit Awareness Month to earn The IIA's Building Awareness Champion digital award!

The IIA would like to recognize your institute as a Building Awareness Champion. Earning the Building Awareness Champion digital award is as easy as 1... 2 ...3!

1. Meet the three "Building Awareness Champion Criteria," as indicated on the attached checklist, during International Internal Audit Awareness Month (May).
2. Have your institute leader initial the completed checklist, validating that your institute has met each criterion.
3. Submit the initialed checklist and all required supporting documentation to PR@theiia.org by June 8.

It's that simple. Complete these steps and your institute will earn recognition from IIA Global Headquarters and receive a specially designed Building Awareness Champion digital award, which can be posted on your institute website.

Building Awareness Champion Criteria

A. Send a written message to your members reminding them that May is International Internal Audit Awareness Month and explaining the importance of building awareness.

Required Supporting Documentation: Provide a copy of the announcement.

B. During May, replace your institute website's main graphic with the specialized "Celebrating Awareness Month" image. Click to download the image.

Required Supporting Documentation: Provide a hyperlink to your website and specify the dates during which the banner image was on the site.

C. Hold an institute event celebrating International Internal Awareness Month during May.

Required Supporting Documentation: Provide a photo and written caption illustrating how your institute celebrated Awareness Month.

Consult the Building Awareness Toolkit for: (A) sample Awareness Month messaging; (B) the "Celebrating Awareness Month" banner image for your website; and (C) institute event celebration ideas.
